For the prevention and cure o
BILIOUS AND MALIGNANT FEVERS is recommended
HAHN's ANTI BILIOUS PILLS

THIS Medicine has been attended with a degree of success highly grateful to the inventor s feelings in several parts of the West Indies and in the Southern and Middle States, &c.

The testimony of a number of person can be adduced, who have reason to believe that a timely use of this salutary remedy has, under Providence, preserved their lives when in the most alarming circumstances.

Facts of this conclusive nature speak more in favour of a medicine than columns of pompous eulogy founded on mere assertion.

It is not indeed presumptuously proposed as an infallible cure, but the inventor has every possible reason that can result from extensive experience for believing that a dose of these Pills taken once in every two weeks during the prevalence of our bilious fevers, will prove an infallible preventive; and further, that in the earlier stages of those diseases their use will very generally succeed in restoring health, and frequently in cases esteemed desperate and beyond the power of common remedies.

The operation of these pills is perfectly mild, so as to be used with safety by persons in every situation and of every age.

They are excellently adapted to carry off superfluous bile and prevent its morbid secretions—to restore and amend the appetite—to produce a free perspiration and thereby prevent colds which are often of fatal consequences. A dose never fails to remove a cold if taken on its first appearance: they are celebrated for removing habitual costiveness—sickness at the stomach and severe head-ache—and ought to be taken by all persons on a change of climate.

They have been found remarkably efficatious in preventing and curing disorders attendant on long voyages, and should be procured and carefully preserved for use by every seaman.

To the friends of Humanity.

AN aged, infirm, and widowed mother, is desirous to receive information of of THOMAS BURTON CARTER, an only son, concerning whom she has not heard any thing, on which reliance can be placed, for nearly three years. He removed from this place to the state of Ohio about five years ago. The last certain account she had from him, was from Cadiz in that state. He is about twenty five years of age; by trade a tailor. Vague rumour has recently pronounced him dead. A letter communicating information relative to him, directed to Henry Tutwieler, P. M. at this place, would confer a peculiar kindness on an afflicted woman.

French Creek Boarding School.

The following is published for the information of Parents:

HAVING long believed that a School on a plan different from most others in many respects, would be beneficial to society, and apprehending that with all its cares, and the responsibility inseparable from such a concern, I could more cheerfully devote my time to the education of children than to any other business, I have concluded to establish a BOARDING SCHOOL for GIRLS—With this view I have purchased the FRENCH CREEK FARM, four miles east of the yellow springs, on the Norristown and Philadelphia road, situated in Pikeland and Vincent townships, Chester county, twenty-seven miles from Philadelphia, combining many conveniencies for the support of such an institution; and having let the farm, etc. in a way calculated to supply the family with provisions, I propose to devote my attention, with the aid of suitable assistants, to the education of the children who may be placed under my care.

In selecting the pupils, it is not proposed to be governed entirely by their ages, nor to require that they shall all be members of the religious society of Friends; but as the school rules will be very few in number and very simple, it is my wish that none may be sent contrary to their own inclination, nor any one who would not be likely to be good examples to the other scholars, and treat them with kindness and affection.

The price for board and tuition will be two hundred Dollars per annum, one quarter always to be paid in advance—no restrictions respecting the kind of clothing are intended, nor respecting the frequency of the changes that parents may require; the washing will be charged at the ordinary price per dozen—children may be admitted for one quarter only, and such as are entered for a longer period, may nevertheless be removed at the expiration of any quarter.—The communication with Philadelphia will be frequent and easy by stage, and a house of entertainment kept by the farmer for the accommodation of persons having business at the school.

Reading, Writing, Arithmetic, English Grammar, Geography and the use of Maps and globes, will be taught, together with such other branches as the progress of the children and experience may render expedient. The school to open the first of the 5th month next. For further information apply to Edward Stabler, Alexandria, or to for publishing by subscription, a new work, entitled

THE TREASURE OF HEALTH;

OR,

A complete collection of the most valuable secrets in medicine, for the cure of all diseases, wounds and other accidents to which the human body is subject; with the method of preparing, and instructions for using, the necessary remedies.

Also, the best preservatives against the plague, small pox, and all other kinds of contagious diseases.—Discovered after much research and experience by the most skilful physicians in Europe, and employed with the greatest success; and unknown till the present time in the United States.

Carefully collected, by a Benevolent Society, and faithfully translated from the French, and other foreign languages,

And published for the benefit of humanity;
BY LEWIS MERLIN.

TO THE PUBLIC.

The work which is this day offered for public usefulness, ought not to be looked upon as those which a desire of gain bring forth every day among us. This is a rare and precious collection of the most valuable secrets in medicine, which the most skilful physicians have discovered after long researches, labor and experience. It is, without contradiction, the first of the kind that has ever appeared within the United States of America, and a treasure which every head of a family could not too much appreciate; as it points out the symptoms of several diseases, of which many persons are only acquainted with their names; 2d, the receipt of the quantity and quality of the drugs that are made use of: 3d, their preparations so carefully described and detailed that the least intelligent person cannot be mistaken; and finally the necessary doses and the manner of administering them. One may rest assured that all in this collection is easy to put into practice, the expense is trifling because all the simples and plants which compose the greatest part of the receipts it contains, may be found in the fields and in the gardens; in a word, that it affords the means of curing, in a short time, all the diseases and evils with which one may be addicted, and at a low expense.

It is to a benevolent society we are indebted for such a precious treasure. Their whole good wish towards suffering humanity, induced that society to spare neither pains, care nor expense in obtaining from all parts of the globe, and to give in one and only collection, a valuable and complete selection of receipts for the cure of all diseases with which the human body is every day afflicted, which their renowned virtues, the repeated experience that has been made of them, even on patients who had been given up by their physicians, and the cures resulting from them, have caused them to be adopted as sovereign and infallible remedies.

Amongst the great number of diseases that have been cured by these inestimable secrets, we shall only name some of them, of which the foreign journals and American newspapers have borne the most authenticated testimony, such as apoplexy, asthma, bilious, windy and nephretique colic, consumption of lungs, debility, dysentery, diarrhœa, dropsy in the breast, in the brain, compound dropsy, anarsarque et ascites, epilepsy, diseases of the eyes, intermittent, tertian, quartan, continual and inflammatory fevers, malignant, spotted and scarlet fevers, hives (so fatal to children), inflammation of the bowels, of the liver and lungs, gangrene, itch, jaundice, fits, hooping-cough, lethargy, leprosy, rheumatisms, pulmonary, scurvy, swellings, sore throat, worms, tapeworm, complaints of the bowels, looseness or bloody flux, folly or madness originated after a sequel of disease, or through an intemperate use of spirituous liquors, cold and sciatique gouts, gravels, gonorrhœa, hydrophobia, bite of venomous animals, hœmorhagy, palpitation of the heart, stone, &c. &c.

This precious collection contains likewise a great number of receipts for preparing several kinds of balsame, ointment or salves, with the manner of using them, and the effects of which are so surprising, that they cure in a very short time, the cancers, without the assistance of any operation; the king's evil, tetter or ring's worm, wens; all sorts of cuts, wounds, however large and deep they may be, both inward and outward hemorhoids, all pains and swellings arising from rheumatism, all kinds of burns, all cataracts of the eyes, even those that deprive of the sight; all sores that come on women's breasts; all kinds of sore legs and ulcers, however old they may be; chancres, buboes, and other venereal disorders; they join the nerves again, when they have been cut or broken in any manner whatever; they strengthen weak nerves and prevent the palsy whenever one is threatened with it; they draw out broken bones and all other foreign bodies that may be in sores or wounds; in short, these ointments or salves do possess such a virtue against the gangrene, that many persons being at the point of having their legs, hands or fingers cut off, have been entirely cured by the application of these ointments alone.

In this interesting work will be also found the inestimable receipt of the grand preventives against the plague, pestilential, spotted and other fevers, small pox, and all kinds of contagious diseases; their preparations with the manner of making use of them both inwardly and outwardly, as well to preserve ourselves against the contagion as to be cured whenever one is afflicted with them; and wonderful and most valuable secrets in medicine—always employed with success, and never failed to cure in epidemic and contagious diseases, and unknown to the present time in the United States of America.

In short, the famous and renowned syrup of long life, or the great preserver of health, whose so extraordinary virtues have drawn the attention of a great number of physicians, although the desire of gain has endeavored to counterfeit or imitate it, but always without success. That receipt so very simple, so very easy to prepare, and of a good taste, was given by an old gentleman of one hundred and thirty-two years of age, who began to make use of it at the age of 60 without his having ever experienced the least inconvenience. The good effects which this simple receipt has always produced on the persons who have made use of it are so well known that no more need to be said on that subject; and although this work contains a great number more of other receipts and other matters not less interesting for the human body, we shall not dwell any longer on the benefits arising to the public out of this precious collection; because it is only by putting what is taught in it into practice, that the public will be convinced of the truth that there is no quackery nor deception in all that has been said, but many truths which could not be too much appreciated.

We recommend this work to heads of families, more particularly to those who reside in the country, who owing to their situation are often deprived of medical assistance in cases of the most urging necessity; it is likewise of the greatest utility to those who through their profession are obliged to visit the sick; as also to the ministers and pastors of congregations, who in their situation are likewise obliged to afford relief to suffering humanity; in short, it could not be too much recommended to captains, masters of vessels, seafaring men and other travellers, who frequent warm climates, as well as to those persons who have a desire to preserve their own health; so much the more, as (we repeat it again) that all therein contained is easy to put in practice, and the expense is small.

As the publication of this work is not an object of a pecuniary speculation, but the welfare of humanity generally, we have endeavored, as well as the expense has permitted, to fix the price of subscription as low as possible, in order that the poor as well as the rich may be able to obtain it, and experience its good effects principally in warm seasons, and in cases of contagious diseases.

CONDITIONS.

To render this work more portable, and comply with the wishes of many persons, it will form a large volume in 12mo. to be printed on good paper and good type, and delivered neatly bound and lettered to subscribers at 150 cents, to non-subscribers, the price will be enhanced to two dollars, and the profit arising from it will be for the benefit of the poor.

As soon as the subscription will be sufficient to defray the expense of printing, the work will be put to press and distributed as soon as circumstances will permit.

To prevent counterfeiting this work, the copy right has been secured according to law; and moreover each copy shall be signed by the person who has the sole direction of superintending the publication of it.

LITERARY INTELLIGENCE.

We learn (says the New-York Evening Post) that the author of those excellent and popular essays which have appeared in the Connecticut Courant for the last two or three years, under the head of "The Brief Remarker," is preparing to collect and publish the whole series in a volume. They are from the pen of the Rev. Ezra Sampson, of Hudson, author of the Historical Dictionary, and that highly useful and valuable little work, the Beauties of the Bible. Mr. Sampson is a scholar of the first order, and though far advanced in life, yet the energies of his mind remain unimpaired.—The style of his writings is always chaste and classical, and the sentiments pure.—The public have for several years been indebted to Mr. S. for the many valuable essays from his pen, and the most of which have received a very extensive circulation in our public papers. The essays of which we are speaking, in particular, have attracted unusual attention; and we think it hazarding but little to remark, that had they appeared in the golden age of British literature, they would at this day have been found in our libraries upon the same shelf with Addison and Johnson.

A Grocer in Albany thus ludicrously and sarcastically addresses his delinquent customers:—

UNPARALLELED LIE-BEL!

A REPORT having been put in circulation that the subscriber would be affronted with those who owe him, if they were to offer payment, informs them that it was propagated with malice aforethought, and is destitute of the semblance of truth; he therefore assures those who are disposed to come forward and discharge their little dues, that in place of the dark, angry distortion of his features, that his risible faculties will assume a complacent look of approbation, and that he will receive them with the truest cordiality.

B. PEARCE.

A Canada paper has the following advertisement; it may suit some parts of the U. States.

Wanted, a few spruce young gentlemen to stand at the church door, at the assembling of the congregation, for the devout purpose of staring the ladies out of countenance.

No other qualification than a good share of impudence is requisite for this employment.—If, however, to this should be added a complete destitution of a sense of propriety, or a talent for making polite remarks upon each lady as she passes, or even a capability of exciting a laugh among his comrades at her expense, the applicant will be considered as more eminently qualified for his station.

Persons desirous of engaging in this business, will please to take their stands at the ringing of the bell next Sabbath, for the purpose of giving a specimen of their powers.

ANECDOTE.

A young lady marrying a man she loved, and leaving many friends in town, to retire with him into the country, Mrs. Demer said, prettily, "she has turned one and twenty shillings into a guinea." M. D.

A favorite of a king had a custom of plucking hair from his beard. The king forbid him to do this under a severe penalty.—Some time after, this man did the king an excellent service. "What shall I give?" said the king. "A power over my own beard," replied the sage.

Some English officers, drinking in their tent, asked the chaplain for a toast. "The King of France." "What our foe?" said the colonel. "You live by him," said the chaplain. The colonel in his turn gave, "the Devil." "Do you mean to affront me?" exclaimed the chaplain. "You live by him," said the colonel, very coolly, "do you not, my good doctor."

ALEXANDRIA:
FRIDAY MORNING, AUGUST 28.

We are informed by good authority, that at a meeting of the Bible Society at Copenhagen, on the 18th May, Count de Schimmelmann read a letter addressed to him as one of the presidents of the society, from the king of Denmark, accompanied with a present of 4000 rix banco dollars.

The stock contemplated to be raised for building a steam-boat to run between Norfolk and Alexandria, has all been subscribed. The amount, 40,000 dollars, was equally divided between the two towns, and the 20,000 dollars allotted to Norfolk were taken up almost as soon as the subscription was opened. [Norfolk Herald.

The corner stone of the capitol of the United States was laid at 12 o'clock on Monday last, the 24th inst. in presence of the Commissioner of the Public Buildings and the Architect of the capitol; after which the workmen and laborers employed about the building partook of refreshments, provided by direction of the Commissioner. [National Intelligencer.

A gentleman lately arrived in this city from Monticello, informs us that Mr. Jefferson has gone on a visit to the springs for his health, being a little afflicted with the rheumatism: that Mr. Monroe had met with a fall from his horse, by which he had been somewhat injured; and that Mr. Madison enjoyed good health, and was much occupied with subjects of a public and useful nature. These gentlemen all live within thirty miles of each other. [Washington Nat. Register.

SPANISH AMERICA.

The last advices from Venezuela and vicinity, mention, that owing to the rainy season, all the military operations had been suspended: that the patriots had retired to their strong holds on the Oronoke; and the Spaniards were cantoned in the Caraccas. Bolivar had removed himself, or been removed, from the head of the revolutionary army, and had assumed the civil authority at Augustura. General Paez, an officer of great experience and courage, had taken the chief command of the army, with gen. Marino for his second. He had his H. Q. at St. Fernando, where the English auxiliaries are. [Boston Centinel, Aug. 22.

EXTRAORDINARY.

On Thursday last, captain Cook, of the Cordelia, just returned from a whaling voyage, advertised to undertake an expedition against the Sea Snake. Not deeming the offers made him sufficient, he yesterday set sail for Cape Cod, and off Spectacle Island (not 4 miles from town), he saw an object which he took to be the Serpent; attacked it, and found it to be a large whale, which he captured and brought to town. An animal of this size has never before been known in our harbor. [Ibid.

It is said that Great Britain has invited the Russian government to require a formal declaration from the Porte, whether it considers the Barbary powers as its dependants, and in that case whether the court of Constantinople will guarantee the states of Europe against any outrages of these barbarians on their rights. [Charleston Pat.

FROM GIBRALTAR.

A friend has favored the editors of the Gazette with the perusal of a letter from Gibraltar of the 23d of June, in which it is remarked, "Of Kentucky tobacco we have a good supply, but of Virginia none. The Spaniards seem now to prefer the latter, as, in their tenders they require about 4-5ths to be Virginia: formerly it was the reverse. Flour is scarce—some sold the other day at auction at from 10 to 10½ dolls. Rice is dull, but the stocks are not heavy. Coffee is in much request, and little for sale." [New-York Gazette, Aug. 24.

From the Albany Register.

THE WATER-MELON.

Mr. Clark,

Can you tell me why the sons of song so seldom tune the harp to the delectable richness of the MELON? While every beterogeneous root, plant, bush, bramble and vegetable, are made the theme of animated and glowing poesy, this choicest gift of the vine is entirely neglected by the bard, and left to the rude eulogy of the voracious epicure. Were I permitted to stride that jilting nag Pegassus, I would goad her to Parnassian's veriest steep, and there chaunt an unceasing strain to the nectared Goddess of vintage. To me, there is not a worldly scene so replete with refreshing extacies, and that gleams with such becalming beauties upon the mind, as the retiring from the mid-day heat of August, to a seat under the reviving branches of the willow, by the side of a cool, meandering stream, to participate in the luxurious treat of a RED-CORED MELON!! But prose is too dull and insipid.

NOMENTANUS.

From the Norfolk Herald, August 24.

FIRE.

We have the disagreeable task of announcing another visitation of this destructive element in our borough. Yesterday afternoon, a little before 6 o'clock, a column of smoke was seen to issue from the roof of General Taylor's new team mill, and in a few seconds the flames burst forth in all their terrors. A large concourse of citizens hurried to the scene of conflagration, but there was no possibility of saving the building—the whole roof was in a blaze. They burst open the doors, however, (which were all locked) and rolled out about 50 puncheons of kiln-dried meal, by which time, the flames having spread to the lower parts of the building, they were compelled to abandon it. Providentially a perfect calm prevailed, and by the active exertion of the citizens and the help of two engines, which were brought to the spot with all practicable expedition, the fire was prevented from communicating to the brewery of Mr. McQuillin, which was within 20 yards of the mill, in which event the conflagration must have extended to Main-street, and the destruction of property would have been very great. But we are sorry to state that two frame houses belonging to the estate of Mr. Jas. Williamson (one of which was occupied as a ship joiner's shop, by Messrs. Lemuel and Robt. Langley), were so contiguous to the mill, that it was impossible to save them—Neither of them were insured.

A small building, formerly occupied by Mr. M'Quillan as a dwelling house, was also partly consumed and partly demolished; and a large frame ware-house, owned and occupied by Mr. Robert Soutter, was barely saved from a similar fate.

The mill had not been in operation for nearly three weeks before, and the doors were kept constantly locked, except the one in the rear, which, as a shed was about being erected on that side, was closed with boards nailed across. The only conjecture as to the origin of the conflagration is, that some diabolical wretch had entered at this door by tearing off a board, and deposited fire in the garret of the building. There was no other property in the mill (besides the machinery, which was costly,) but a quantity of kiln-dried meal in puncheons, which, we believe, was all saved. The mill-house and machinery were insured.

Boston, August 21.

FROM GIBRALTAR.

We have been favored with a Gibraltar paper of the 20th of June, received yesterday at Merchants' Hall; and are sorry to find that the Plague has made its appearance at Tangiers, a seaport in Africa, on the Atlantic, a short distance from Gibraltar.

Algiers, April 14.

On the 12th inst. an Anglo-American squadron, consisting of two line-of-battle ships, one frigate and two sloops, came to an anchor in this Bay for the purpose of reminding this government, that in case their privateers should go out, they are not to search any American vessels, or to reconnoitre them in any other way than by their flag, which secures the commerce of their nation; and that the U. States government will look upon any contravention as an act of hostility, and will make themselves satisfaction accordingly.

[Received per Adriatic.]

Gibraltar, June 12 and 19—Ar brigs Ocean, Moison, (of Boston) St Thomas, 41, for Leghorn—Columbia Dyer, Balt 37—Cl brig William and James, Graves, (of Boston) Malaga.

Extract of a letter from Havana, July 30, received at Merchants' Hall.

"The British frigate La Pique arrived here several days ago, from Jamaica, and she is now receiving the money from the Tay, which was brought up here last year, from the wreck of that vessel, by our Consulado corvett Valency. The amount is about 350,000 dollars, but 6 per cent will be retained here for duties."

[A gentleman who left Havana July 31, states, that he was informed by the commander of the La Pique, that the amount saved from the Tay, was about 430,000 dollars, and that the charges of the government at Havana would be 72,000.]

We have been favored with a Demarara paper of July 3, which contains the conclusion of the trial of a number of English seamen, on a charge of piracy. The names mentioned are, James Alexander, Peter Bennett, Samuel Allbrook, Samuel Medley and Henry Broomfield.

They were a part of the crew of the Spanish American armed brig Royal Africano, (part of her men shipped at Charleston) which sailed from Havana and Amelia, in 1816, reported to be bound to Africa.—Not long after sailing, (as appears by a statement published in an old Demarara paper, signed by one M'Kinnen) a mutiny took place, headed by M'Kinnen, 2nd officer, in consequence, as it was alleged, of her having plundered several American vessels. The American and Spanish captains, with ten others, were sent adrift, and M'Kinnen took command. The remaining crew, according to his account, being sent on plunder, he endeavored to keep out of the way of merchant vessels, but falling in with an English ship, bound to Demarara, he, (M'K.) went on board, and concerted measures with her commander, to prevent her being robbed. He sent ten men on board, slightly armed, who were secured, and he overawed the rest, (40 in number.) While M'Kinnen was on board the ship, consulting on the best port to carry the brig into, the latter made her escape, with an officer and one man of the ship on board.—The eleven who were on board of the English vessel, were carried into Demarara, in October, 1816.

The ship had only one gun—the brig mounted eight.

The above five men appear to have been brought to trial early in July last, as British subjects, on a charge of having conducted in a manner tending to show that they meditated plundering the ship, when they first came on board, and before boarding. After a full and patient hearing, they were acquitted July 3; but on the 7th, all of them were again brought up for trial, on an indictment for misdemeanor, founded on the same case of piracy.

Alexander and Bennett were found guilty—the remainder acquitted.

LETTERS FROM ASIA.

Extract from a series of letters, written by an American gentlemen while in Asia, to his friend in Boston. The writer unfortunately died by the plague, on his passage from Alexandria, in Egypt, to Constantinople, in a Grecian vessel.

[Boston Patriot.

[No. 9.]

The merchant with whom I reside having occasion yesterday to visit the Governor on some business relating to commerce, requested me to accompany him. We were not sure that the plague had ceased in that part of the city where he resides; still, from an insatiable desire I have always had to see a little of every thing, I readily acquiesced.

We found his Excellency within an arbour in his garden, seated and reclining on cushions, contemplating the beauties of a fountain that played before him, while two Janissaries, richly attired, were driving from his face by means of fans, the flies, and other insects, as they attempted to annoy him.

On entering, we placed our right hands on our breasts, bowed respectfully both to him and his suite, which consisted of about twelve persons and then seated ourselves near him on cushions, without removing our hats—our Greek interpreter, however, approached the Governor, fell on his knees and kissed his hand, after which he took his seat with us.

It is a general custom to present visitors with pipes and sherbet, and the Turks even condescend to shew this attention to Christians, but at present is dispensed with, the Ramazan yet remaining in full force.

After having transacted the business that occasioned our visit, we signified a wish to see his Excellency's horses, which are considered of a superior breed—this was immediately granted and a Janissary was ordered to shew us the Court in which are situated the stables and prisons. On arrival however our attention was drawn to a different object.

There were three Greeks charged with having robbed a Frank of some trifling article, and as they denied having committed the act, the Turks thought the bastinado might have a tendency to make them give a different account, as proofs were strong against them. They were therefore brought out of their prisons separately, and ordered to lie on the ground—a wooden bar was produced, having a cord made fast at both ends near its centre—within this the prisoner's legs were secured near the ankles, and each end of the bar supported by a Turk, leaving the soles of the feet horizontal with the body. From a bundle of sticks, two men, called Executioners, selected those they thought strongest, and alternately struck the part thus exposed with great violence. They bore a few strokes with wonderful heroism, but their cries soon became dreadful, when the executioners desisted, and they went limping back to their prisons.

Justice of some kind may always be obtained in this country, and although 'tis doubtful whether a loser ever recovers his stolen property, still he may rest assured that the thief, if discovered, will meet his reward.

It is painful to reflect on the severity often used by the Turks to obtain confession of crimes; still more so, when we consider that innocent persons must occasionally suffer for the guilty—but how can it be avoided? Do we not often see injustice among ourselves? Are not individuals suffered to become beggars in seeking equity when no doubt can be had of the justness of their claim, merely from their opponent's power to drive the injured party into expences which they are unable to sustain?

'Tis a melancholy fact, notwithstanding all nations boast of their justice, that it cannot be found with any—and the very laws that were originally intended to establish happiness among mankind, form a source, whence flow a great portion of our misery and wretchedness.

Died,

On the 25th inst. at Port-Tobacco, in Charles Co. Md. Mr. Nicholas F. Blacklock, in the 29th year of his age, after a short illness. Numerous virtues and excellences were combined in the character of the deceased. To all the social and noble affections which distinguish the father, husband, brother and master, he united the generous feelings of the man, and the warm benevolence of the christian. By his death his family, of whom he was at once the ornament and guide, has sustained an irreparable loss, and society has been deprived of a useful and active member. He was greatly beloved by his friends and relatives, and gained the esteem of all who knew him.

Exchange & Broker's Office,

Georgetown, District of Columbia.

ROMULUS RIGGS,

AT his office, next door below Crawford's tavern, Bridge-st. Georgetown, will exchange all kinds of Bank Notes on the most reasonable terms.—All persons who may have notes on the banks of North Carolina, South Carolina and Georgia, would do well to call on him, as he is largely in the purchase of that kind of money, and will take it on the most reasonable terms.—Persons travelling to the Western Country may at all times get the Bank Notes of the Western Banks at a fair discount, by calling at his Office. For the information of all persons throughout the U. States, R. Riggs makes it known, that all of the Banks of the District of Columbia pay their notes on demand in specie; and it would be much to the advantage of the merchants, and trading to the South and west, to encourage the circulation of the Notes of the Banks of Georgetown, Washington and Alexandria, as it will at all times answer for remittances to the large commercial and Atlantic towns;—all persons emigrating or travelling to the westward should be very particular and take the Notes of the Banks of the District of Columbia, as they will find them the most current, there being no counterfeits on the District Banks. The Merchants' Bank of Alexandria has long since failed—all persons should be on their guard, as they will be imposed on. August 18

The distance from Georgetown, Washington or Alexandria, being an agreeable ride, he anticipates a share of public patronage, which he hopes his assiduity to business will justly merit.

50 Dollars Reward

RAN away from the subscriber on Saturday night the 27th ult, a Negro man by the name of JACOB THOMPSON, aged 22 or 23, nearly 6 feet high, very black, and rather a down look when spoken to—he is very apt to put one hand up to his chin when answering questions. He is a very submissive orderly fellow—His clothing that can be recollected consisted of a blue second cloth coat with yellow buttons, nearly new; Russia sheeting shirts and trowsers, and a variety of other clothing not recollected. I fully expect he must have from 150 to 200 dollars with him in money—and very little doubt but he had furnished himself with free papers. Whoever takes up the said fellow, secures him in jail, and retains all moneys and papers he may have on him, shall be entitled to the money found on him, and the above reward if taken out of the District; or twenty dollars if taken within the District of Columbia. He is a very artful fellow and has been in the habit of outruling himself as a free man, and will no doubt attempt to pass as such, and probably get work—has a down look when spoken to.—His clothes not recollected, having various suits.

A reward of 10 dollars will be given if taken in the town or county, 20 in the county of Washington or Fairfax, or the above reward if taken 50 miles from town, with all reasonable charges if brought home.

Masters of vessels are cautioned against harboring or carrying off said runaway, as they will be dealt with according to law.

A long Lease for Sale.

THE subscriber will sell the lease which has 18 years to run, of a small Farm he at present occupies, lying on the turnpike road leading from Alexandria to Washington city, about half way between the two places, and adjoining the lands of Mr. George Wise and Alexander Hunter. The improvements are a snug small Dwelling-

House and kitchen, good stables, spring house and slaughter house, and all the useful tools therein for killing, together with a house with a large kettle for rendering neat's feet oil, which is a good business if properly attended to, and may be made much more so by adding the glue-making, which may be easily done—there is also a good garden and a number of beehives. I will likewise sell a likely young Horse, that has been well broke to the saddle or any kind of harness, a light cart and harness, a first-rate milch cow, the farming utensils, and household and kitchen furniture of every description, some of which are very good. The whole will be sold for cash, or on a short credit. The lease will be sold with or without the other articles, and immediate possession given. If not sold prior to the 1st day of September next, the above described articles will on that day at 3 P M be offered at public sale on the premises—and if the lease is not sold, the farm will then be rented for one or more years. It is thought unnecessary to give a further description of this valuable property, as it is presumed any person inclined to purchase or rent will view the property prior to that day, and it will be found very advantageous, as there are a number of articles on it which will be sold low and well suited to it. An early application is recommended and the whole will be sold a bargain.

BILL IN CHANCERY.

James B Dunnington, Robert Dunnington, Francis Taylor and Elizabeth B. his wife, James Bloxham and Catharine his wife, William Simmons and Esther his wife, heirs of William Dunnington.

THE Complainant alleged in his bill that the Respondents have in possession the real estate of their deceased father Wm. Dunnington are non residents.—It is thereupon, at motion of the Complainant, ordered that he cause a copy of this order to be inserted in the Alexandria Gazette for the space of three months, to the intent that the absent defendants may have notice of this application, and of the subject and object of the bill, and may be warned to appear in this court in person or by a solicitor, to shew cause, if any there be, wherefore a decree should not pass as prayed. June 27 Th2m

Dr. Thomson's System of Chemistry.

IN FOUR VOLUMES OCTAVO.

THE preceding edition of Dr. Thomson's Chemistry, had acquired so much reputation both in England and upon the continent of Europe, that a new edition, comprising the new facts with which the science had been enriched, and the new views of the subject which extended knowledge had suggested as indispensable, was eagerly looked for by the scientific world. A new edition has accordingly appeared, wherein the former edition of five volumes has been condensed into four.

All the new discoveries, and all the new theories of Chemical Phænomena, have been considered and embraced in the present improved edition: so that it is indispensable to the chemical student, as presenting the only condensed view of the changes and alterations in chemical doctrine, which the discoveries of the last ten years have suggested. No apology therefore can be necessary for reprinting such a book in this country; for the press does not furnish a substitute for it. But, there is so much theoretical suggestion—so much abstruse calculation—so much fact of dubious authority—and so much dubious validity—that notes and illustrations are absolutely necessary, not merely to render the book more useful, but more intelligible.

Under these impressions, I thought fit to write notes in illustration (and sometimes in contradiction) of the work itself, rather than to make any abridgement of it. Those who wish to know the modern views of chemical science, must peruse it; and to very many who will be anxious to study it, elucidation will be necessary. I have endeavoured to supply these, to the best of my ability; regardless whether my own opinions are in dissonance or coincidence with those of my author; leaving to the reader to decide between us.

The work will be published, with notes and illustrations, in four volumes 8vo.

James Kennedy & Son,

RESPECTFULLY inform the public that they have just received from

LEE's MEDICINE STORE,

No. 46, Maiden lane, New-York a fresh supply of the following valuable MEDICINES:

Hamilton's Worm destroying Lozenges,

Which have within sixteen years past cured an immense number of persons of both sexes of every age and in every situation, of various dangerous complaints arising from WORMS, and from obstructions or foulness in the stomach and bowels.

This medicine bears no analogy whatever to others of similar titles so commonly complained of as operating with violence; on the contrary a particular [illegible] its being suited to every age and constitution. It contains nothing but what is perfectly innocent & is so mild in its operation that it cannot injure the most delicate pregnant lady or the tenderest infant of a week old should no worms exist in the body; but will without pain or griping cleanse the stomach and bowels of whatever is foul or offensive, and thereby prevent the production of worms and many fatal disorders. The lozenges are particularly efficacious in carrying off all gross humours and eruptions, feverish and bilious complaints, and are the safest and mildest purgative that can be used on any occasion.

Description of Worms, and the symptoms by which they are known.

Worms which infest the human body are chiefly of four kinds viz.—The Teres or large round worm; the Ascarides or small maw-worm; the Cucurbitine or short flat white worm; and lastly, the Tænia or tape-worm, so called from its resemblance to tape. This is often many yards long and is full of joints. It is most hurtful and most difficult to remove.

Among the symptoms attending worms are—disagreeable breath, especially in the morning; bad and corrupted gums; itching in the nose, and about the seat; convulsions, epileptic fits, and sometimes privation of speech; starting and grinding of the teeth in sleep; irregular appetite, sometimes loathing food and sometimes voracious; purging with slimy and fœtid stools; vomiting; large and hard belly; pains and sickness at the stomach; pains in the head and thighs and lowness of spirits; slow fever with small and irregular pulse; a dry cough; excessive thirst; sometimes pale and unhealthy countenance, and sometimes the face bloated and flushed.

Persons afflicted with any of the above symptoms should have immediate recourse to Hamilton's Worm Destroying Lozenges, which have been constantly attended with success in all complaints similar to those above described.

A dose of this medicine given occasionally during the warm season, will effectually prevent "the vomiting and purging of children"—a dreadful disorder, which annually destroys thousands of the infant part of our citizens. It is likewise the mildest and most certain remedy known, and has restored to health and strength a great number when in an advanced stage of this fatal complaint. Particular and plain instructions are given for every part of the necessary treatment in such cases.

Children generally take this medicine with eagerness; having a pleasing appearance, and an agreeable taste.

The Restorative Powder for the Teeth and Gums.

For the prevention and cure of BILIOUS AND MALIGNANT FEVERS is recommended

HAHN's ANTI-BILIOUS PILLS

THIS Medicine has been attended with a degree of success highly grateful to the inventor's feelings in several parts of the West Indies and in the Southern and Middle States, &c.

The testimony of a number of persons can be adduced, who have reason to believe that a timely use of this salutary remedy has, under Providence, preserved their lives when in the most alarming circumstances.

Facts of this conclusive nature speak more in favour of a medicine than columns of pompous eulogy founded on mere assertion.

It is not indeed presumptuously proposed as an infallible cure, but the inventor has every possible reason that can result from extensive experience for believing that a dose of these Pills taken once in every two weeks during the prevalence of our bilious fevers, will prove an infallible preventive; and further, that in the earlier stages of those diseases their use will very generally succeed in restoring health, and frequently in cases esteemed desperate and beyond the power of common remedies.

The operation of these pills is perfectly mild, so as to be used with safety by persons in every situation and of every age.

They are excellently adapted to carry off superfluous bile and prevent its morbid secretions—to restore and amend the appetite—to produce a free perspiration and thereby prevent colds which are often of fatal consequences. A dose never fails to remove a cold if taken on its first appearance: they are celebrated for removing habitual costiveness—sickness at the stomach and severe head-ache—and ought to be taken by all persons on a change of climate.

They have been found remarkably efficatious in preventing and curing disorders attendant on long voyages, and should be procured and carefully preserved for use by every seaman.

To the friends of Humanity.

AN aged, infirm, and widowed mother, is desirous to receive information of of THOMAS BURTON CARTER, an only son, concerning whom she has not heard any thing, on which reliance can be placed, for nearly three years. He removed from this place to the state of Ohio about five years ago. The last certain account she had from him, was from Cadiz in that state. He is about twenty five years of age; by trade a tailor. Vague rumour has recently pronounced him dead. A letter communicating information relative to him, directed to Henry Tutwieler, P. M. at this place, would confer a peculiar kindness on an afflicted woman.

☞Editors of Newspapers generally, are intreated to give this article a place in their columns a few weeks.
